

2024 Ann & Charles Eisemann International Young Artists Competition for Strings

Presented by the Richardson Symphony Orchestra

The purpose of the competition is to recognize talented young musicians and to give these artists the opportunity to perform with the Richardson Symphony Orchestra. The competition will be held on Saturday, January 13, 2024 at First United Methodist Church Richardson.

Awards

The First Prize Winner receives a cash award of $5,000 and will perform with the Richardson Symphony Orchestra on March 4, 2024. (Hotel accommodations for 2 nights included.)
- Second prize winner receives a cash award of $2,000.
- Third prize winner receives a cash award of $1,000.

Eligibility

This competition is open to serious musicians, ages 14 through 27 as of January 1, 2024. The teacher or coach with whom the student is currently studying must sign the application. No former first-place winner may enter the competition again.

By entering the competition, the contestant guarantees that, if declared the first place winner, he or she will be available for the required rehearsals on Friday, March 1, 2024 and Saturday, March 2, 2024 and for the performance on Saturday, March 2, 2024.

Standards and Adjudication

All competitors will be judged by the highest artistic standards of performance, in the areas of technical proficiency, musicianship, repertoire and stage presence. Professionally-qualified musicians will screen all preliminary audition performances. The remainder of the competition is divided into two stages: Semi-Finals and Finals. All competitors in these two rounds will perform before two nationally-recognized artists/master teachers and are open to the public. The three finalists will be announced following the last semi-final audition of the day. The finals begin shortly after the announcement.

At the discretion of the judges, no winner will be declared if the performance standards of the competition are not met. The decisions of the judges are final.

Audition Submissions

Recorded concerto performance should be emailed as a YouTube link to Laurie Garvie. The performance must include all movements of the selected concerto or the entire major orchestrated work that will be performed for the competition. Please include your name and repertoire selection (composer and title.) Competitors will be notified by email by December 1, 2023 as to their acceptance into the semi-final round.

Fees and Applications

Application submission should include: completed application, audition concerto emailed as a YouTube link to *Laurie Garvie, a non-refundable entry fee of $75 made payable to the "Richardson Symphony Orchestra," and an accompanist fee of $175 made payable to the "Richardson Symphony Orchestra." Must be received by November 1, 2023.

Accompanists

The RSO provides professional accompanists for a fee of $175. This fee includes a one-hour rehearsal the day before the semi-final round of the competition, plus accompaniment during the competition.

When selected into the semi-final round, each contestant will be required to mail an original piano score (no photocopies) for the accompanist to use during the rehearsal and performance.

If an accepted applicant withdraws from the competition for any reason after Monday, December 15, 2023, the accompanist's fee will be forfeited.

Competition Repertoire

Competitors will perform from memory all movements of a standard string concerto or the complete significant orchestrated work written for strings.

For the 2024 Competition, the following repertoire is excluded because these works were performed as part of the RSO's 2022/2023 or will be performed in the 2023/2024 subscription series:

- Saint-Saens: Cello Concerto No. 1 in A minor, Op. 33
- Brahms: Violin Concerto in D Major, Op. 77
- Ravel: Tzigane
- Chausson: Poeme, Op. 25

No substitutions or changes are permitted once the application has been submitted. On the day of the competition, each competitor must provide an original published score for the judges. No photocopies of music will be accepted. Orchestrations for all competition music must be available in the U.S. Music provided to the judges will be returned at the end of the competition.
